HOOCH RUNNERS AND DRINKERS

Danger to life on the road at night is driving people away from auto riding after dark. Tourists now refuse to travel after nightfall and there is a slackening up all over New England. Holdups, collisions, reckless drivers, drunken drivers have made it too serious. Back to the trains for long distances is said to be the order of the well-to-do.

N. Staten secretary, and F. C. Malley a member, to call the next meeting for a permanent organization.

CLAIRVOYANT USED IN SEARCH FOR BODY

Lewiston, N. H., Aug. 16.—The assistance of Mrs. Nellie Titus of this town, who possesses clairvoyant power, is being employed in the search for the body of Dr. Willis J. Marion of Calais, Me., who was drowned while in swimming with his two little sons at Mascoma Lake last week.

His family who are at their summer home at Enfield Center, have caused every means to be tried for locating the body but in spite of them all, including the work of a diver for three days past, all efforts are unavailing.

Mrs. Titus was successful several years ago in locating the body of Miss Rose of Enfield who committed suicide by jumping into Mascoma Lake from Shaker Bridge, and since then she has sometimes been similarly employed.

She has rowed about the scene of the drowning and while in a trance gets her idea of the location of the body and the diver's work then comes into play. Up to today this method has also been unsuccessful. Owing to a current where a brook flows into the lake nearby the place where Dr. Marion went down, his body may have been taken down the lake some distance.

U. S. GETTING TO BE A THRIFTY NATION

Washington, Aug. 15—Orrin G. Lester, acting director of the treasury department's division of savings, gave out figures tonight which he said showed that America, long considered the spend-thrift nation of the world, is gradually acquiring the habit of thrift.

The figures showed that the per capita holdings of outstanding war saving securities amount to $6.10 for continental United States. After making reductions for redemptions, on sales extending over a period of three and one half years, securities valued at $676,520,000 are still in the hands of investors.

BELIEVE IRELAND'S CONGRESS WILL NOT YIELD

(By Associated Press)

Dublin, Aug. 16.—The Dail Eireann opened this morning. Mr. DeValera in speaking said that they had the same feeling toward England as that laid down by Cardinal of Belgium toward the Germans that excessive authority was unlawful. The Irish, he said, had their ideal in the American Declaration of Independence. He said the British feeling toward the Irish should be that of a great nation guaranteeing safety to a small state. This scene was in striking contrast to that in Belfast when the Ulster Parliament met. Dublin was not decorated as was Belfast, and instead of a squadron of cavalry, a division of infantry and uniformed police. The only uniforms on the streets were those of the traffic officers.

Summing their impression of the Dail Eireann today political men who have been closely following, stated these views of the Irish situation that the whole atmosphere of the meeting, including Mr. DeValera's speech, had given the impression that the attitude created by the leaders to the British government would be maintained. His speech suggested that the reply of the Dail Eireann would show unyielding position. That it would be indorsed unanimously by the Dail Eireann they considered a certainty. The impression might be gained that a government claiming no authority in Ireland was part of the program in conception. The oath taken by members would have been called high treason in the old days.

Belfast, Aug. 16.—After a meeting of the cabinet today officials declared that the general situation was carefully gone over, and that there was no change in position.

It is reported here that the military authorities in Ireland have cancelled all leave of absences for both officers and men, and that all officers and men who are away on holidays have been recalled. It is stated that this step is taken as a precaution against surprise and has no other significance.

RUSSIAN JEWS LEAVING SOVIET TERRITORY

Berlin.—Thousands of Russian Jews are crossing the Esthonian, Lithuanian, and Polish borders every month, many sent from Soviet territory under protection of high Bolshevist officials, according to travelers in the border states who recently have returned here. The opinion in neighboring states is that the exodus is prompted by fear of an approaching crisis.

The rumored crises in Russia always have been discounted here but in well-informed sources it is believed the situation really is serious now, and will be more serious in the winter months, for it is known the grain crops largely have failed, provisions of all sorts are scarce, and there is little gold with which to purchase more.

Starvation already has taken toll of the population of a number of districts and wide areas are facing the longer winter with only a few weeks supply of provisions on hand.

The fact that no appreciable organized Russian anti-Bolshevist movement has appeared since Baron Wrangell's forces were dissipated leads observers of the situation here to believe that should the overthrow of the Soviets occur this winter it will take the nature of a popular uprising, supported by such troops as are not at the front. Many fear it will result in a widespread anti-Jewish program.

For these reasons every Jewish family of means, and many that are destitute, are attempting to get out of Russia. They have no desire to tarry in Lithuania or Esthonia, but are seeking to enter Germany, with the idea of eventually reaching America.

"BETTER DENTISTRY AT LOWER FEES"

Milwaukee, Wis.—The problem of giving good dentistry to workingmen at lower prices is one of the great questions confronting the profession, Dr. Henry L. Hanzhaf of Milwaukee told the National Dental Association here recently.

He advocated cooperative clinics as a solution.

"The average American working man should be able to buy honest dentistry at a reasonable fee," Dr. Hanzhaf said.

"Better dentistry at lower fees can only be accomplished when a group of dentists, each a specialist in his field, comes together in a centrally located cooperative dental clinic.

"Each dentist must operate in his chosen field only, thus increasing his efficiency 40 per cent, because he does only the work he is best qualified to do."

Dr. Hanzhaf said the Milwaukee industrial dental clinic was proving a success. This does work for industrial establishments with which it has agreements.

AUTO GOES INTO RIVER

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Aug. 16.—An auto hired and used for demonstrating purposes in connection with the Fire Department Training School, went into the Charles River near the Cottage Farm section today. The machine backed into the river, but ten student firemen jumped before the machine went over and were not hurt. The driver, Arthur Johnson, stuck to the seat and was found unconscious but not seriously hurt. Lieut. Ryan, who was in charge, tried to reach the emergency brake and sustained a broken limb.

DEVENS COMMANDER TO HEAD COAST DEFENSES

Camp Devens, Aug. 15.—Orders have been received from Washington to the effect that on Sept. 1 Gen. Mark L. Hersey, commander of this camp, is to take command of the coast defenses of Boston.

Since the announcement was made that Devens is to be abandoned there has been much speculation as to what would become of Gen. Hersey. As a Major General he commanded the 4th Division in France, and he is extremely popular with the officers and men of this cantonment.

The announcement that he is to remain in the 1st Corps Area was received with delight. He will go to Fort Monroe for instruction for a few weeks, after which he will take a month's leave. He will then report to Gen. Edwards for duty as commander of the coast defenses of Boston.

HANDS OFF YAP, DECLARES OKUMA

Tokio, Aug. 15 (By Associated Press)—Former Premier Okuma, in an interview published here today, was quoted as saying that if any of the powers should attempt to interfere with the agreements reached at Versailles concerning the Island of Yap and Shantung, the Japanese should oppose such interefrence for the sake of the honor of the empire.

The fact must be recognized, he added, that Siberia was so vitally connected with South Manchuria, where Japan had invested 450,000,000 yen, that Japan's special position in Siberia should be acorded, generally speaking, he said. Japan's delegates to the forthcoming conference on far eastern questions must insist on the right to existence of the Japanese people and protection for the Asiatic peoples generally in furtherance of the principle of universal equality.

NO WOMAN IS STRONGER THAN HER NERVES

"No electric power station is stronger than the amount of electricity stored therein. Your brain and nervous system consists of countless millions of cells. In these cells is stored a mighty mysterious energy called "nerve force" on which all thought, force, energy and even life itself must depend.

"If you overtax your nerves by worry, overwork, too much excitement, grief or constant nervous strain, and thereby use up your nerve force or nervous vital fluid faster than it is made, you are bound in time to become a nervous wreck with all its terrible tortures and sufferings."

In such cases, avoid mere stimulating medicines and narcotic drugs. What you need is something to put more nerve force into your weak, devitalized nerve cells. This is most effectively accomplished by the free use of Nuxated Iron, as it not only contains organic iron to enrich your blood, but it also contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force, so that it may be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. It often increases the strength, vigor and endurance of weak, tired, nervous, worn out women in two weeks' time. Satisfactory results are guaranteed to every purchaser or the manufacturers will refund your money. Nuxated Iron for the blood and nerves is sold by all druggists.

LEWIS CALLS HOWATT BEFORE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Pittsburgh, Ks., Aug. 15—Alexander Howatt, president of the Kansas Miners' Union, has been called before the International executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, meeting at Indianapolis. The order for his appearance came from President John L. Lewis and interrupted a speaking campaign against the Kansas industrial court law which Howatt is making in Kansas.

It is understood Howatt was called in connection with the investigation of the strike at the Dean Coal & Mining Company's plant which has kept the plant idle for four months. A committee of the international organization investigated and differences between Howatt and Lewis at that time absorbed attention in mining circles. The committee from the International Board reported to Lewis that the Dean strike was unlawful, but the summoning of Howatt before the board was the first official action by the international organization in connection with the Dean strike since the investigation.

Clark, in his story to the court, showed that there had been trouble between the two families, and the complaint was the result. Clark's story, before the searching inquiries of Judge Cole, counsel for Morse, finally broke down, and he admitted that he did not believe Morse was selling. Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

OIL FIRE IS RENEWED AFTER FIGHT

Philadelphia, Aug. 15—Fire which yesterday caused the death of five persons and the injury of nearly a score of others at the Point Breeze plant of the Atlantic Refining Company, broke out again shortly before noon today after it has been extinguished by firemen and employees in a 24-hour battle.

Three alarms summoned every fireman back from the fire houses, to which they had returned only a few hours previously, to combat a roaring pillar of flame shooting 100 feet into the air from a sewer fed by 20,000 gallons of oil by-products. All of this, it was feared, would be destroyed, adding several thousand dollars to the estimated loss of $1,000,000.

Officials of the fire department expressed the belief the fire was caused by the back firing of a motorcycle ridden by a workman. The workman had tried to pass over a narrow bridge spanning a gully where gasoline fumes from leaking pipes hung densely.

Company officials announced that reconstruction would begin immediately and that none of the 2200 employees will be thrown out of work.

The second blaze was extinguished after it had burned about two hours. It was confined to the sewer containing the oil by-products, nearly all of which were destroyed.

PEAR TREE IN FULL BLOOM FOR THIRD TIME THIS SEASON

West Bridgewater, Aug. 15. Orchards in this town, badly nipped by frost in the spring, are bearing practically no fruit. But some trees are trying their best to "come through" A pear tree on Prospect street today was in full bloom, for the third time this season.

Some people are indifferent and say Corn Flakes, and get what they ask for. Others want the better kind, and demand—

RUSSIANS IN DEADLOCK OVER RELIEF PLAN

(By Associated Press)

Riga, Letvia, Aug. 15—A deadlock was reached today in the negotiations relative to American relief for Russia's famine sufferers between the American Relief Administration and Maxim Litvinoff, acting on behalf of the Soviet Famine Relief committee. Action by Washington and Moscow will be necessary to decide the issue, it is declared.

Whether the American relief administration will compromise on some of its usual methods and permit the Soviets greater control of the personnel and distribution of American food than has been granted any other country which has been aided, has been put up to Herbert Hoover, head of the relief administration, by Walter Lyman Brown, European director of the administration. Pending a reply from Mr. Hoover the conferees will discuss minor points, but Litvinoff, it is understood, will stand firm in his refusal to sign some of the American conditions unless ordered to do so by the Moscow Government.

The conferees here have not yet reached a point where they consider an agreement impossible, but it is no secret today that the negotiations were not proceeding smoothly.

In response to M. Litvinoff's statement that the Moscow authorities were unable to locate Royal C. Keeley, on whose release a test case of Russian good faith will be made, Mr. Brown this morning furnished Litvinoff with Keely's present street address in Moscow.

Pending Mr. Hoover's reply on the points referred to him for decision, M. Litvinoff was taken on an inspection tour of the American Relief Association kitchens in Riga to demonstrate the sort of work to be done.

The Mystery of the Cook's Pet Parrot

A FUNNY paper recently
SLIPPED ME a good laugh
WITH A wheeze about
A FAMOUS ventriloquist
AND WHY he had quit
THE VAUDEVILLE stage
IT SAID he discovered
HE COULD make more jack
SELLING WOODEN parrots
SO WHEN I got home
I PASSED the joke
TO OUR cook, who owns
BOTH A speechless parrot
AND A sense of humor
BUT SHE muffed it
BECAUSE SHE didn't know
WHAT A ventriloquist was
SO I had to explain it
AND ON the way out
I BLEW just a whiff
OF CIGARETTE smoke
AT HER amusing old
FOOL OF a parrot
WHICH NEVER talks
AND I said, "Poll
HOW D'YOU like it?"
AND TO this day
IT'S GOT me guessing
WHETHER IT was cook

The Coming Conference.

The whole world now knows the nature of the formal invitation that has been sent to the leading nations to join in a conference at Washington next fall to consider the question of disarmament and also questions pertaining to the Pacific and the Far East. In the invitation the President has made plain the aims of the conference and the need of united action for the prevention of wars and the preservation of peace throughout the world. The conference has been talked of for a long time. The invited nations have signified their readiness to take part and a gathering which may prove to be the most important of its kind in the history of the world is assured.

In outlining the need for such a conference and what is to be hoped for as a result of its labors President Harding calls attention to many important facts. He declares that productive labor is staggering under an economic burden too great to be borne unless the present vast public expenditures are greatly reduced. And it is clear that the cost of armaments is regarded by the President as the chief element in the burden to be lessened. He says: "The enormous disbursements in the rivalries of armaments manifestly constitute the greater part of the encumbrance upon enterprise and national prosperity, and avoidable or extravagant expense of this nature is not only without economic justification, but is a constant menace to the peace of the world rather than an assurance of its preservation."

This is not a revelation. It is a simple statement of facts that have long been recognized, but the question has been how to avoid this tremendous expenditure. All then nations have been playing the same game, rendering it unsafe for any one, no matter how great, to enter alone upon a policy of disarmament. But if they can act together it will be practicable to reduce armaments to the minimum, and will be safe for all. The President believes the time opportune to "approach this subject directly and in conference." The leading nations accept that view and the world will hope for results of immeasurable value to mankind.

And yet it will not do to expect too much. Vast interests and issues are involved. The outlined program is in direct opposition to the policies of the past. But the horrors of war were never so keenly realized as now, the nations of the earth were never more in need of peace or more desirous of it. Peace with safety is all that any of them ask, and most worthy is the attempt to find how this can be attained.

President Harding is a lover of peace and justice and good will toward all men and all nations. He was eminently the man to propose and foster this movement for better world relations, and if the conference fails to produce the desired results it will not be his fault.

The conference will be a matter of world interest and deep concern to all the nations. It will attempt to solve misunderstandings, which the President believes to be the cause of most troubles between nations, as between individuals. Succeed or fail, it is well that it has been called, and there is every reason to hope for substantial benefits even though not all expectations may be fulfilled.

It seems to be becoming increasingly difficult to convict moonshiners, as was illustrated at Manchester the other day, when the court failed to find guilty a man on whose premises were found two stills, mash and liquor, because it was not proved that the defendant was the owner and operator of the outfit. The ways of the law are past the understanding of the average layman.

The anti-beer bill continues to be kicked back and forth in Washington in a manner highly irritating to a vast army of men who are beginning to feel that they have sucked their tongues about long enough. But it is not at all certain that they will be relieved when final action is taken.

Japan has given 10,000 yen to the Young Men's Christian Association as a token of appreciation of what the organization did for its soldiers in Siberia. The value of the gift is about $5,000. And there is no doubt that the yen was very acceptable to the men.

An Amherst, Mass., clergyman has resigned his pulpit and will retire to a farm that he has purchased. This is an unusual movement "back to the soil" at a time when, according to all accounts, the pulpit needs men about as badly as the farm.

August 11 was an important day for the Harding family. The President was initiated into the Order of Eagles and his father, aged 76 years, was married. Congratulations were consequently in order both in Washington and Marion.

Baron Byng, the hero of Vimy Ridge, is now Governor-General of Canada, where he arrived last week and was received with acclaim. If he does as well in his high office as he did on the field he will leave nothing to be desired.

The August crickets tell us that summer is on its last legs.

SHAW FAMILY REUNION HELD AT HAMPTON

Hampton, Aug. 16.—The first reunion of the Shaw Family of this town, which has taken place since the death of Simeon Shaw, was held here yesterday afternoon. With the exception of Everett S. Shaw and family, now living in Colorado, and Percy M. Blake and descendants, now living in Spokane, Wash., every members of the immediate family attended this reunion.

The old Shaw homestead rang once more with the laughter of children, the youngest of whom belong to the 11th generation. The old place has been the property of the Shaw family since the original settlement of the town in 1639.

Reminiscences of former days occupied the afternoon, during which the younger members of the family association found an opportunity for becoming acquainted with each other. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and a group picture was taken, showing the growth of the oldest family in Hampton during the past decade.

The following members of the family attended the reunion:

S. Albert Shaw, Mrs. A. Isabel Shaw, Miss Thelma M. Shaw, Elroy G. Shaw, Mrs. Jessie H. Shaw, Miss Evelyn C. Shaw, Miss Hazel I. Shaw, Harold D. Shaw, Clarence Shaw, Miss Stella Shaw, J. HIDDEN ROMANCE IN LIFE OF "BIG BILL"

Chicago, Aug. 16.—A hidden romance in the life of W. D. ("Big Bill") Haywood, who fled to Russia several months ago to avoid serving a sentence of 20 years in Leavenworth prison, on a charge of which the former leader of the Industrial Workers of the World may inherit a large fortune, was revealed yesterday by Charles F. Clyne, district attorney.

Haywood, according to Mr. Clyne, married Jane Minor in California 30 years ago. Later, after two children were born, he was said to have deserted her. He never obtained a divorce, but later became leader of the "Wobbles," which resulted in his arrest and conviction with other I. W. W. officials of conspiracy to obstruct the war efforts of the United States.

In the meantime Mr. Clyne said that he had been informed Haywood's wife's father amassed a fortune in Nevada and Arizona which went to his daughter at his death. Recently it was said, the daughter dies in Nevada, leaving no will. Under the laws of Nevada, one-third of her estate would go to her husband.

Mr. Clyne said he was investigating the case with the idea of collecting an unpaid $15,000 fine assessed against Haywood.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Not So Serious as It Looks

The three radio operators at Otto Cliffs station, Bar Harbor, who are alleged to have lowered a British flag raised in honor of the arrival of a British cruiser about a week ago may receive only a verbal "dressing down."

An official of the 1st naval district at the Boston navy yard headquarters yesterday deprecated the emphasis which had been placed upon the incident and declared that Rear Admiral Gleaves, head of the district in Newport, R. I., yesterday on a tour of inspection, previous to his departure, expressed the opinion that the Bar Harbor incident was merely an episode of "sky larking" on the part of the three young radio men not of a character sufficiently serious to merit official censure from Washington.

A veil of mystery, however, still overhangs the whereabouts of the three offenders.

Late Again Today

Several yard employes who patronize the early morning train over the Portsmouth branch, missed connection for the second time this week today. They were 40 minutes late reaching Portsmouth owing to the train doing much freight work along the line.

Different Dress of Marines

The Marine guard at the naval prison and yard barracks are now distinguished by the uniforms. The marines at the prison now appear with a khaki uniform and belt and the barracks men with the old time regulation rig of blue.

Hearing at Charlestown Yard

A man who could not write his name, and therefore was ineligible to employment under civil service rules, was retained as a worker in the Boston navy yard while war veterans were discharged.

This was brought out yesterday in the navy yard probe of alleged discrimination by department heads against former service men.

Antonio Unito of Medford, a laborer in the public works department at the yard, admitted while testifying at yesterday's session of the investigation that he could not write his name.

Questioning of Unito brought out the admission that his naturalization papers, completed 20 years ago, were signed by his wife and a Medford physician. The witness previously had declared he signed the papers himself.

The Italian laborer, according to previous testimony by George W. Webberson, a laborer in the department, and one of the discharged war veterans, was sent by Wilber H. Otis, head of the department, to the Otis home in Medford to care for Otis's lawn.

Otis testified yesterday that he had paid Unito $2 for cutting the lawn and caring for a grapevine. He declared he gave Unito the extra work because, as an Italian from the vineyard section of Italy, he was familiar with the care of grapevines.

Otis, after giving his address as Salem street, Medford, said he was supervising engineer of the public works department, but was not a service man. He asserted he would not go to war unless he was given a commission, but stated that he believed service men should be given preference in employment because they were entitled to it.

Witness testified that no grade or conduct ratings were made on cards of the men employed in his department. When shown the discharge card of Webberson, grading the veteran's workmanship and conduct each at 90 percent, Otis admitted having signed the card, but declared he did not know how the markings came to be on it.

Eagle 4 Coming North

Eagle Boat No. 4 will shortly come north and go out of commission at the local yard. The department had previously planned to put her out of commission at New Orleans.

May Come Here

Rear Admiral C. W. Parks of the Bureau of Yards and Docks is on a trip to some of the yards and may possibly extend the trip to Portsmouth.

Moving Old Boilers

A crew of men employed by W. S. Nolan of Boston began today the removal of the four boilers from the yard power plant which were purchased as junk by the Boston firm.

Work Completed

The auditors report for the Navy Yard Mutual Aid Association has been completed and given to the members of that organization.

Coming Out of Dock

The mine sweepers Auk and Auspreyand barges 13 and 15 will be floated from the dry dock on Wednesday.

Divided in 4 Districts

The reservation is now divided into four districts and each duty officer of the military division has certain sections of the yard to look after. All the commercial water front is in District One.

A superintendent of a building in New York has installed a rack where workers can park their cigars on entering the building and get them again on leaving.

SPECIAL GUEST AT THE VETERANS ENCAMPMENT

The Weirs, Aug. 15—Buddies of the World War and comrades of the Civil War, together with those who served in the Spanish War, will gather at the Veterans' camp ground here, Aug. 23 to 26, to be present at the 45th annual encampment of the New Hampshire Veterans' association, which will be held at Camp Shackford, the camp having been named for the late Col. Nat Shackford, a well known veteran of the Civil War, and who had served for 43 years as secretary of the association.

The special guests of the encampment will include Gen. Clarence R. Edwards of the 26th division, and Gen. Chase W. Kennedy of the 78th division, Gov. Albert O. Brown, members of his council and staff, Senator Henry W. Keyes, Senator George H. Moses, Congressman Sherman E. Burroughs, Congressman Edward M. Wason, Mayor L. H. Wilkinson of Laconia and members of the city council; others to whom invitations have been extended to be present during the week are Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Roosevelt, Adm. Joseph Murdock, U. S. N. retired and others.

Monday, August 22 will be Assembly day, the officers of the association will open their headquarters in the headquarters building, where they will receive all visiting comrades; the Lake City Drum corps will furnish music throughout the day and evening.

In the evening at the opening of the campfire program, Mayor Lewis H. Wilkinson will give an address of welcome and there will be a patriotic musical program given by the Veterans' association chorus, organized by the leading vocalists of Laconia, with Prof. F. H. Osgood instructor of music in the public schools of Laconia as director. The program will be in charge of Capt. Frederick W. Moore, musical director for the encampment. Tuesday will be Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Veterans day, with campfires both afternoon and evening. Wednesday will be the Grand Army of the Republic and Women's Relief corps day, with special musical programs at all of the campfires.

The big day of the week will be Thursday, American Legion and Governor's Day, when the association will entertain their special guests. Friday the programs will be in charge of the Spanish War Veterans, it being Spanish War Veterans' and Ladies Auxiliary day. The encampment will be brought to a close Saturday morning with the annual business meeting of the association.

A feature of the week's events will be the dedication of two bronze memorial tablets, one in memory of the men and women of the state who served in the World War and the other in memory of those who served in the Spanish War. Fitting exercises will take place at the dedications.

In connection with the encampment the third annual convention of the New Hampshire Department of the American Legion will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The meetings of the Legion will be held in the Casino and it is expected that an unusual large number of the New Hampshire ex-service men will be present for the meetings. The Ladies' Auxiliary will hold its first annual convention during the week, and their meetings will take place in the old dance hall up on the hill, which has been transformed into one of the finest convention halls in the state.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES HOLD NATIONAL CONVENTION

Washington.—The National Federation of Federal Employees, composed of government employees, men and women, in every occupation, from the professions and sciences to charwomen and laborers, in every state and territory of the United States, will hold its fifth annual convention in New Orleans September 12-16.

Every government service—customs, internal revenue, immigration, naturalization, steamboat inspection, lighthouse, coast and geodetic survey, weather bureau, plant and animal industry, food inspection, geological survey, bines fisheries forest reclamation, public health, Indian schools, vocational education, soldiers rehabilitation, War Risk Insurance, the mints, custodian force of federal buildings, the arsenals and navy yards, and all other field services in addition to the scientific bureaus in Washington, such as standards, market labor statistics, the libraries, and the large professional, clerical and mechanical forces of the Treasury, War, Navy, State, Commerce, Justice, Interior, Agriculture, and Labor Departments—is represented in the membership of the National Federation of Federal Employees, which was organized "to advance the social and economic welfare and education of the employees of the United States and to aid in the perfection of systems that will make for greater efficiency in the various services of the United States."

The outstanding feature of the Federal program is its endorsement for the Lehlbach-Sterling bills, which provide for reclassification of the entire civil service, on a strictly merit basis, the elimination of politics from appointments and promotions, and a standardized pay scale fixed according to the skill and training required for the job. The salary scale now in effect is based on standards of 1854.

Several hundred delegates are expected to attend the convention, and there will be numbers of women among them. Three of the largest and most active organized groups are composed entirely of women—while several of the mixed locals have women presidents and secretaries who will be in attendance.

Mr. J. Fenwick of the Accounting Department, Navy Yard, Portsmouth, has been elected a delegate from Local No. 99 to the Convention.

Mr. Winebaum, who is one of Portsmouth's enterprizing young business men, has the best wishes of his many friends in his new venture.

NEW MOTORCYCLES FOR ROAD POLICE

Ten more motorcycles will be purchased by the State Highway Commission of Maine for patrol work along the highway. The Executive Council has issued an order to that effect, it being decided that it was far better for the state to own its own machines and have them a once, while traffic is at its height, than to pay rental on old and inferior machines.

Trunk lines of highway now covered by these patrols include from Kittery to Millinocket and beyond. A motor patrol goes from Kittery to Saco, one from Saco to Portland, one from Portland to Brunswick, one from Bath to Bowdoinham, one from Bowdoinham to Augusta, one from Augusta to Lewiston and one from Augusta to Waterville, one from Fairfield to Newport, one from Newport to Bangor. Two men patrol from Bangor, one from Bangor to Dover Foxcroft, and one from Bangor to Rockland. Both of these runs are too long for a single man and will be divided next year. Another patrol has headquarters at Winn and goes just below Lincoln and also from Millinocket toward Houlton.

Games This Week

Tuesday—Navy Yard vs. Legion.
Wednesday— P. A. C. Vs. Hovey Post.

The P. A. C. got a little more of a toehold on the Sunset League championship on Monday evening, when they defeated the Hovey Post 2 to 0 in a rattling good game, in which both teams played fine base ball. It was a two base clout of Charlie Thomas in the second inning with men on second and third base that did the trick, for scoring after that was prevented by good pitching.

Russell Weare who has been doing the bulk of the twirling for the P. A. C. singled a some back, and came near getting a no hit no run game, for the only hit the Veterans made was in the third when Gorrell got a scratch hit over the pitcher's box. Only two men reached first Gorrell on his hit and Eastman on a base on ball, but neither reached the second station. He fanned seven men.

Hanlon pitched a good game allowing but four hits two of which were in the second inning and he struck out six men, and the fact that he fanned Ralph Brackett both times at the bat, is some evidence to the local fans that he was in good form.

Eastman the first man up was passed by Weare, but he took too much liberty with Thomas at first and was out on a quick peg. Estabrook struck out and Gibson was retired by Cole.

Tommy Pilgrim went to first when Woods bunted his grounder but McPheters hit into a double play, Estabrook to Eastman to Gibson. Brackett struck out.

Hanlon in the second rolled one to Brackett. Woods fanned and Gamester died via the Greenland route, Brackett to Howard.

The P. A. C. annexed the game in this stanza, after Leary had rolled one to Hanlon, Beattie waited for a pass and stole second. Howard obliged to center. Cole struck out Thomas hit to right for two bases scoring two runs and Weare rolled one that Gibson was able to take care of alone.

Bled to Pilgrim, Gorrell caught one on Bled to Pilgrim, Gorell caught one on the end of his bat and hoisted it over the pitchers box and was safe for the only hit off Weare, but Eastman rolled one to Weare for the third out.

Pilgrim beat out a bunt, McPheters sacrificed him to second and he went to third on a short passed ball, but here Hanlon fanned Ralph Brackett and Bill Leary.

In the fourth Weare made short work of the Post fanning Estabrook and Hanlon and forcing Gibson to hit to Brackett.

The P. A. C. looked good for a score in this frame, Beattie getting a single to left, going to second on a passed ball and stealing third. Howard struck out Cole drew a pass and Hurley pegged to Eastman who by a good throw nicked Beattie off third. Thomas struck out.

The fifth was short Woods hitting to Beattie and Weare fanned Gamester and Parker.

The score.

Final Plans for Fair

The Atlantic Heights Community Association held a meeting last night in Community Hall and perfected the final arrangements for the fair and lawn party which it will have on the Common on Wednesday afternoon and evening of this week. Mrs. L. G. Shattuck who will have charge of the post office at the fair reports heavy mail sacks and indications point to a busy day for the postmistress and her two needy postal clerks.

In the event of unfavorable weather that the event will be postponed to the first good day following. The ladies are preparing for a busy evening in the open air Cafeteria and many dainty dishes are being prepared. The ice cream booth will be taken care of by the girls of the G. T. G. club, Mrs. G. The Boy Scouts will take care of the thirsty patrons of the fair and will give many exhibitions and the games and sports in their charge will make no end of fun for the young folks who attend. The grounds will be brilliantly lighted and many attractions for the patrons are being planned.

SENATE REPORTS GOOD ROADS BILL

Washington, Aug. 15—The federal good roads aid bill, was favorably reported to the Senate today, and effort will be made to pass it before recess. It provides for a federal commission of three to disburse the $100,000,000 authorized for annual good road improvement and requires that three-sevenths of the roads improved must be interstate while four-sevenths may be inter-county.

Sixty per cent. or more of federal funds would go into interstate roads. A sliding scale of federal aid is provided for in states having large public land areas.

HIS BUSY DAY

Versailles.—Henri Desire Landru, who is to appear for trial in October on charges growing out of the disappearance of 11 women to whom he had promised marriage, is busy studying the docket of his case, numbering some 7000 documents.

A few days ago, a warder came to fetch Landru before the Judge for some sort of a voluntary statement. Landru lifted his head from the table covered with copies of documents concerning his trial, and with an air of infinite boredom said: "Won't you please ask the Judge to postpone this call; this is my busy day."

FRANCE'S WAR SCARS FAST HEALING

VERDUN, France.—Nature is making such rapid progress in hiding the scars of war in France that outside of towns where ruins are still standing, it will soon be impossible to discover the famous front line of four years of war without close examination.

It has become evident that the abandoned project of reinstituting intact, as it existed at the close of hostilities, the line from Nieuport, in Belgium, to Belfort, as a lesson to future generations, could not have been carried out excepting at an enormous expense.

Forests that were supposed to have been annihilated have shown remarkable recovery. Positions that were upheaved repeatedly until the subsoil covered the surface almost completely, giving every appearance of hopeless aridity, have been slowly covered by vegetation.

Even the famous height along which runs the Chemin des Dames (the Ladies' Way), is covered with thick heritage, that remains green in spite of the drought. In order to preserve certain famous war scenes such as the Bayonet Trench at Verdun, it was necessary to erect a shelter and protect the trench from the slow but sure work of nature in order to preserve it as it was during the great battle.

MORE SCHOOLS FOR PALESTINE

London.—So comprehensive is the education plan of the government of Palestine that, at the present rate of progress, the whole country will be provided with schools within four years, it is announced here.

Since January, 34 new village schools, providing elementary education for 1,360 children, have been opened, while 46 state-aided schools provided in villages by the inhabitants have been taken over by the government. An additional 35 schools will be opened during the current financial year, it is announced.

Measures also are being taken for the development of the two training colleges for teachers. Teachers are also being appointed to live among the Bedouin tribes and teach their children.

A central education committee has been formed, consisting of four Moslems, three Jews and three Christians.

Under the arrangements now in force the people of the villages provide the buildings and furniture and keep them in repair, while the government pays the salaries of the teachers and other costs of maintenance.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va.—"For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation so that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So I decided to try it and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief. So I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA LIERING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Liering's experience. Remember this, for over forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring health.

GEORGE LAYS HIS CARD ON THE TABLE

London, Aug. 15—England today faced a crucial period in the negotiations looking to the establishment of peace in Ireland. The action of the British Government yesterday in making public letters exchanged between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Eamonn DeValera, Irish Republican leader, showed the people that a virtual deadlock existed, and, although the door was declared to have been left open for further parleys, it was apparent that the situation was one of considerable gravity.

Reports from Dublin which might indicate what the Irish Republicans would do to counter the unexpected move of the Government in giving the correspondence to the press were anxiously awaited. It appeared, the next step should be made in that city, as Mr. Lloyd George literally laid his cards on the table yesterday, and it seemed that Mr. DeValera and his colleagues must meet the situation thus created. Whether they would issue a statement today, or would wait until the opening of the Irish Republican Parliament tomorrow, was uncertain. The purpose of the precipitate action of the Government in making public correspondence has not been disclosed, but it would appear that the Prime Minister sought to lay the Irish problem before the country on the eve of the meeting of the Dail Eireann.

The Government terms were, in brief as follows:

Dominion status for Ireland, will complete autonomy in financial matters, but without tariff or trade restrictions between the Islands. Ireland would maintain defence forces and police, but her territorial forces would be kept within "reasonable limits" Ireland would maintain her own postal system, but would grant England air defense and communication facilities. Ireland would have control of her own educational and industrial affairs, but the British Navy would maintain its hold on the seas around the island. A share of the United Kingdom's debt would be assumed by Ireland, the exact amount to be fixed by arbitration.

Mr. DeValera, in reply, demanded full independence for Ireland, and suggested a treaty of association with the British Commonwealth group. Treaties regarding trade and limitation of armaments were urged by the Irish Republican chieftain, together with mutual agreements as to air, railway and other communications. The Ulster problem would be left to the Irish themselves, for solution, Mr. De Valera declaring that the "employment of force was not contemplated"

The attitude of the Ulster Government was made plain by the striking public at Belfast, of a letter to Mr. Lloyd George from Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier. Sir James expressed the loyalty of his Government to the empire, and reiterated his readiness to confer with Mr. Lloyd George and the Sinn Fein as to some means of settling the Irish controversy, but declared he would not support the Sinn Fein in what he described was a move to coerce the Government to repudiate the Irish act" and "to press for wider powers. Sir James said he would not interfere in any negotiations between the British Government and the Irish republicans, but would stand ready to cooperate on equal terms with Southern Ireland in carrying out any agreement they reached.

TO CONSIDER COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Move Expansion of Chamber of Commerce by Retail Board on Monday

The idea of conducting an annual community celebration continuing several days and beginning with Labor Day was suggested at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday at the Hotel Rockingham. It was thought that it might be possible to give it a touch of national character through the national interests which Portsmouth serves. A committee consisting of F. A. Holden, F. A. Gray, Mayor F. W. Hartford, L. G. Peyser and W. F. Woods, was named to consider the project. It will be brought up at a meeting of the Retail Trade Board on Thursday morning.

The question of the expansion of the membership of the Chamber in order that it may be more representative of all interests was discussed. It is felt that there are many things the Chamber can do for Portsmouth, particularly if all interests in the city are brought into it. It was emphasized that every interest ought to have representation in the big central community body which the modern type of Chamber is.

The following were added to the membership committee: F. W. Randall, Fred Gardner, Max Goodman, T. E. Mitchell and George Paras.

SHOOTS YOUNG DERR AND THEN RUNS AWAY

A party of berry pickers in the woods at Rye heard the discharge of a gun nearby and later they found a young deer dead and reported the shooting to the town authorities who later called Game Warden W. E. Woods into the case. He ordered the animal buried and a hunt made for the one who did the shooting.

The party who shot the deer was evidently frightened by the people after he fired and quit the hunting grounds when he filled the deer with shot. The deer weighed about 50 pounds.

POLICE COURT

Business is booming out well in the municipal court. The assault case, which came from some kind of a cloutting fest at the navy yard ferry landing last Saturday night, was heard today. The defendants were Joseph Taylor, Henry Payne, Frank Sielderski, Robert Hulse and William Kelley, made up the party of two civilians, two marines and a sailor. They each pleaded not guilty and put the trouble up to the watchman. He claimed that two of them went after him first and later the reserve force came up and got busy. Emery had no marks from the battle, but the court put an assessment of $10.82 on each of the defendants. A marine officer from the Navy Yard barracks appeared before the court and made a request that the marines be turned over to the commanding officer for punishment, but the court declined to hand them over.

E. L. Hamlin, a speeder from the Pine Tree State who kept the speedometer up around the 50 mark on Lafayette road, decided that the ten dollars he left for bail could stay with the city of Portsmouth. The clerk did not see his face anywhere when the roll was called.

Joseph Colton of Massachusetts, who claimed he was a business man, was in the speed business on Middle street last Thursday. He was the here today to talk to the court, but nobody that looked like Joe appeared and ten dollars more went to the fund.

LET'S HEAR FROM SOME ONE WITH PULLETS TO BEAT SAUGUS MAN

Now here is a chance for the hen fanciers in some of the surrounding towns to declare what they have got in their rooks that will take the laurels from Howard Fisher of Lincoln avenue, Saugus, Mass. Fisher believes that he has a pullet hard to beat. He claims that the record of the prize one at Concord must go by the board. He has a Barred Rock that was hatched on the 13th day of March and laid her first egg on the 4th of July, some 11 days short of four months. The pullet continued to lay for nine successive days without skipping.

MEETING OF THE POLICE BOARD

Very Little Business Handled on Monday Night

The police commissioners held their regular meeting on Monday night but had little business before them. Samuel W. Emery was heard on a petition which was presented on behalf of some local club regarding boxing matches. After hearing the attorney the board took it under consideration.

One application for patrolman was received and placed on file. It was the first received in many months.

HENNESSEY FUND A WORTHY CHARITY

The fun for the children of the late Jeremiah Hennessey is not growing as it should be for so worthy a cause. Here are three little orphan children with no means of support. The motherless little ones suddenly lost their devoted father early in July and this case is an especially sad one. Even if there are numerous appeals for various causes from time to time, it seems as if many of our local people might give a modest contribution for this fund, if no more. As yet the output raised has been small and it is earnestly hoped that the appeal will reach more. If some of the many parents whose own little ones are receiving such devoted care would add their contributions to the fund it would help to swell the amount.

Timothy J. Kelly of Chapel street is treasurer of the Hennessey Fund and contributions may be left with him or at The Herald office. All contributions to this fund will be acknowledge through The Herald.

REMAINS TO ARRIVE FROM FRANCE

The remains of Sidney R. Pickles which arrived at Hoboken, N. J., from overseas a few days ago, are expected to reach this city about Thursday. This young hero, who met his death on the battlefield in France, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pickles of this city. The remains will probably be given a military funeral from the North Church of which the deceased was a member.

Funeral notice will be given later.

CAMP SCHLEY ACTIVITIES

The Camp is making arrangements together with the Auxiliary to hold a big field day on Labor Day.

The field day will be held at Wyman's grove in Kittery near Fort Hill and no pains are being spared in the preparations to provide a day of pleasure and recreation for the veterans, their families and the Auxiliary.

The local committee of the New Hampshire Consistory are making elaborate plans for the autumn meeting of the Consistory in this city on Labor Day. This is the first time that the Consistory has worked in this city for a great many years at least. The work will be at the Portsmouth theatre and the headquarters will be at the Wentworth hotel.

SHOOT WILL ATTRACT SOME OF BEST SHOTS

The annual two days registered trap shoot of the Portsmouth Country Club will be held tomorrow and Thursday over the club traps. It is anticipated that there will be a good field if the weather is right. Many entries have been received of some of the best of the New England crack shots and there will be several from Manchester and some from Exeter and vicinity. The shoot will be under the direction of the committee on trap shooting Messrs F. A. Holden, H. T. Wendell and H. B. Tilton.
